

TEEN SUMMER WORKSHOPS

WEDNESDAYS FROM 5-7PM

Ely Public Library

June 4: Tik Tok: Create Meaningful Content

Teens will learn to critically analyze TikTok content and create their own meaningful videos that tell stories or share information in engaging ways.

June 11: Podcast Productions

Teens will learn the basics of podcast production, from concept development to recording techniques, culminating in a collaborative mini-podcast episode.

June 18: Digital Zine Creation

Teens will create digital zines that combine text, images, and graphics to express their interests, concerns, or creative ideas.

June 25: Citizen Journalism

Teens will explore principles of ethical journalism and apply them by creating short news pieces about local issues or events.

July 2: AI Art Workshop

Teens will learn about AI art tools and the ethical considerations surrounding them, then create collaborative art pieces using AI tools and human creativity.

July 9: Gaming for Food

Teens will explore how video games can address social issues and create simple game concepts that incorporate positive messages or educational content.

July 16: Augmented Reality Storytelling

Teens will create simple augmented reality experiences that reveal hidden stories about Ely's history, culture, or community.

July 23: The Anxious Generation: Teens & Tech Wellness

The Anxious Generation: A timely program exploring how smartphones and social media impact the mental health of today's youth. Drawing on the latest research and real-world experiences, this event offers insights and practical strategies for fostering healthier tech habits in teens.

July 30: End of Summer Celebration Pizza Party

Celebrate the end of summer with a Teen Pizza Party! Enjoy pizza, games, music, and a chance to hang out with friends before the new school year begins. Come hungry and ready for fun—it's the perfect way to wrap up your summer break!
