

Summer Reading Ideas

- All Prairie students are invited to use the Prairie Heights library to check out books throughout the summer. You don't need a library card....just show up and check out some books!

Summer library hours at Prairie Heights for

ALL PRAIRIE students on the following days:

9:00-3:00 on Tuesdays from June 9th-August 4th

All materials need to be returned by the 11th of August.

- Complete the Kernels Scorecard. Check out their website for info.
- Visit your local libraries or their websites to find out about their summer reading programs.
- Pizza Hut is bringing back BOOK IT! at bookitprogram.com
- Visit Pizza Ranch, Barnes & Noble or Half Price Books for summer reading programs and incentives
- Use these free online resources from the Grant Wood AEA. Go to clever.com/login and use your school Google username and password or Clever card. It is the same password that your family uses to sign up for conferences and to log into your school laptop.

BookFLIX pairs classic video storybooks from Weston Woods with related nonfiction eBooks from Scholastic to build a love of reading and learning.

MackinVia houses ebooks and audiobooks and can be used on any laptop, desktop, tablet, or phone via the MackinVia app.

PebbleGo has informational articles about animals, famous people and places, science, and social studies.